Audition Option #1:

VIRGINIA

Because David said there's no such person as Santa Claus. He said that he doesn't exist at all but you told me that he was real and that he brought presents to good boys and girls at Christmas and... Well? Is it true?

Audition Option #2:

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! How dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence.

Audition Option #3:

FRANK

I receive a lot of letters every year from our devoted readers. Some people are angry about silly things. People never write a letter to the editor about something happy, have you noticed that? But when this particular letter from a little girl in Manhattan came across my desk, it sparked something in me that I haven't had in a long time: a sense of hopefulness. I knew I couldn't leave her letter unanswered.
